

the PhD game

START

HOW TO PLAY THE GAME:
Pick a token, roll the dice and follow the path through the PhD studies. The first player to reach the FINISH line is the winner and gets the doctoral hat.

GLASGOW:
Welcome to Glasgow!
This is the first of the places you will visit on your journey. The 10 cities are the home towns of the doctoral students in the two projects Glycolmaging and Biocapture

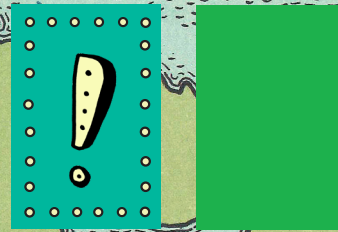

CONGRATULATIONS!
You can now call yourself a doctor!

FINISH

Count your gold stars and move ahead as many steps as you have stars

MOVE BACK:
You failed at your halftime defence. Go back and try again

SKIP AHEAD:
Make a detour to the summer cottage to focus on your writing
